OF RICHMOND

February 24, 2019

Nowhere in the New Testament is there any such thing as a commitment to Christ apart from a commitment to the body of Christ, His church. At the very heart of the Christian experience is the dynamic of life in a Covenant community.

Call to Worship

Leader: *I will remember the deeds of the LORD;
yes, I will remember your wonders of old.
I will ponder all your work,
and meditate on your mighty deeds.
Your way, O God, is holy.
What god is great like our God?
You are the God who works wonders;
you have made known your might among the peoples.*

This is a time to be honest with God about our sin and ask Him for forgiveness through Jesus.

Confession and Assurance

Lord, how quickly we forget Your promises to us!

We doubt Your provision, so we chase after possessions and social status.

We deny Your love, so we withdraw into ourselves and into sin.

We distrust Your authority, so we run our lives as we see fit.

Forgive us our sin, gracious Father!

Strengthen our faith and restore the joy of our salvation.

Convince us that sin never satisfies.

Lead us in loving our neighbors and bearing fruit by Your Spirit.

In the name of Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

- silent confession -

He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.

By his wounds you have been healed.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Leader: Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

People: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
